

COMBOYNE CIRCULAR TUESDAY 10th. APRIL PAGE 3

Wendy Hee, qualified practitioner of Chinese Medicine, Batchelor of Health Science (TCM) UTS, will host a Morning Tea at the Community Centre on Friday, 20th. April 2018, from 10.30am. to 11.30am., to talk about the benefits of Chinese Medicine in managing chronic conditions and healthy ageing. We hope that she will be able to plan future events to raise awareness of health issues concerning our community and how the combination of Western and Chinese Medicine can help. Wendy has created a Facebook Page, <https://www.facebook.com/events/775783129282661/> If you 'like' the page you can then be connected to updates. Her webpage is qiandtonic.com.au The medicine incorporates the use of acupuncture and herbs. Hope to see you there.

COMBOYNE TAKEAWAY

Thank you to all who have come in and supported our new venture. We would like to ask that all evening orders be in by 5.30pm. so that the hotplate has time to cool down sufficiently to enable cleaning before closing time. The deep fryer will stay on until 6.00pm. for all fried foods. Leonie and Scott.

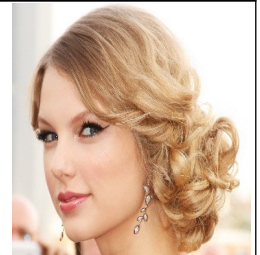

Alan Naylor, financial adviser, will be at the Community Centre on Tuesday, 24th. April, for two appointments. So dig your money up from under the house and see if Alan can't find a better way to look after it. You can contact him on: 0457 628 300 to make a time. The appointments are free of charge.

COMBOYNE HAIRDRESSER

Phone 0400 164 270 for appointments. Please note that the salon will be closed from the 6th. to the 13th. April.
